Civil Case No.

COMPLAINT AND JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff MICHAEL GRECCO (“Plaintiff”), by and through undersigned counsel and pursuant to the applicable Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules of this Court, hereby demands a trial by jury of all claims and issues so triable, and for his Complaint against Defendants ASSOCIATED PRESS; ARKANSAS DEMOCRAT-GAZETTE, INC.; THE MCCLATCHY COMPANY; TELEGRAPH MEDIA GROUP LIMITED; NORTHWEST ARKANSAS NEWSPAPERS, LLC; GATEHOUSE MEDIA, ARKANDSAS HOLDINGS,

INC.; THE SAN DIEGO UNION-TRIBUNE, LLC; and JOHN DOES 1-100 (collectively “Defendants”), hereby asserts and alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION AND RELIEF SOUGHT

1. This is an action for copyright infringement and related claims brought against Defendants for unauthorized and infringing uses of Plaintiff’s photograph as alleged herein.

2. Plaintiff seeks damages and other relief related to Defendants’ knowing and willful infringement of Plaintiff’s copyrights in the original work identified.

THE PARTIES

3. Plaintiff Michael Grecco (“Grecco”) is a resident of the State of California.

4. Plaintiff is a professional photographer who makes his living by creating and licensing photographs.

5. Defendant Associated Press (“AP”), a New York Corporation, describes itself as a not-for-profit news “cooperative” that is owned by and made up of over 1,400 newspapers and media organizations. AP’s headquarters are located in New York, New York.

6. Upon information and belief, Defendant Arkansas Democrat-Gazette, Inc. (“ADG”), an Arkansas Corporation, is a publishing company that owns and operates the “Arkansas Online” website located at www.arkansasonline.com and maintains its primary place of business in Little Rock, Arkansas.

7. Upon information and belief, Defendant Northwest Arkansas Newspapers, LLC (“NWAN”), an Arkansas limited liability company, is a publishing company with its primary place of business in Little Rock, Arkansas.

8. Upon information and belief, Defendant GateHouse Media Arkansas Holdings, Inc. (“GateHouse”), a Delaware Corporation, owns numerous publishing companies and newspapers, including Defendant NWAN, and maintains a registered agent in Little Rock, Arkansas.

9. Upon information and belief, Defendant Telegraph Media Group Limited (“Telegraph”) is a publishing company that owns and operates The Daily Telegraph print newspaper and website located at www.telegraph.co.uk, with its primary place of business in London, England.

10. Upon information and belief, Defendant The McClatchy Company (“McClatchy”), a Delaware Corporation, is a publishing company that owns and operates the Sacramento Bee (“SacBee”) print newspaper and website located at www.sacbee.com. Defendant McClatchy’s primary place of business is in Sacramento, California.

11. Upon information and belief, Defendant The San Diego Union-Tribune, LLC (“SDUT”), a Delaware limited liability company, is a publishing company that owns and operates The San Diego Union-Tribune print newspaper and website located at www.sandiegouniontribune.com. SDUT’s primary place of business is in San Diego, California.

12. Defendants John Does 1-100 are additional known but as-of-yet-unascertained AP subscribers and customers to whom AP distributed copies of Plaintiffs’ photograph at issue here.

13. Together, Defendants ADG, NWAN, GateHouse, McClatchy, Telegraph, SDUT, and John Does 1-100 are referred to herein as “the Publisher Defendants.”

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

14. Jurisdiction for Plaintiff’s claims lies with the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York pursuant to the Copyright Act of 1976, 17 U.S.C. §§ 101, et seq., and 28 U.S.C. § 1338(a) (conferring original jurisdiction over claims arising under any act of Congress relating to copyrights).

15. This Court also has jurisdiction over Plaintiff's claims pursuant 28 U.S.C. § 2201 which authorizes the Court to declare the rights and other legal relations between the parties.

16. Venue is proper in this Court under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1391(a) and (b) because Defendants conduct substantial business within the State of New York, infringed Plaintiff's copyrights within the State of New York, and a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to Plaintiff's claims occurred in the State of New York; and under 28 U.S.C. § 1400(a) since the alleged misconduct by Defendants occurred in this District and/or because Defendants may be found in this District.

17. This Court has personal jurisdiction over AP because its headquarters are located in this District.

18. This Court has personal jurisdiction over the Publisher Defendants because they conduct substantial business in the State of New York; infringed Plaintiff's copyrights in the State of New York as described herein; purposefully targeted activities to and systematically transacted, conducted, and solicited business in this District, including through their ongoing relationship and dealings with AP; and because they obtained the copy of Plaintiff's photograph at issue in this lawsuit from AP in New York.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

19. Plaintiff created and owns all copyrights in the following photograph (the "Photograph"):

20. The Publisher Defendants published Plaintiff's Photograph without a license, including but not limited to on their websites and other online/digital publications.

21. Attached hereto as Exhibit 1 is a true and correct copy of screen captures of the Publisher Defendants' websites demonstrating that they published the Photograph.

22. Upon information and belief, the Publisher Defendants obtained copies of Plaintiffs' Photograph from AP.

23. Upon information and belief, AP distributed copies of Plaintiff's Photograph to all of its wire service subscribers at the time, and did so on more than one occasion.

24. Upon information and belief, AP had the right and ability to prevent the infringing acts of the Publisher Defendants. Among other things, AP has the practical ability to not provide copies of photographs to its subscribers. AP also has the right and ability to send directives to its subscribers ordering them to stop using image content provided by AP.

25. AP and the Publisher Defendants also infringed Plaintiff's copyrights by retaining copies of the Photograph in their "file" archives and publishing (and/or allowing/authorizing/directing others to publish) the Photograph.

26. AP did not have permission from Plaintiff to distribute copies of Plaintiff's Photograph to its wire subscribers.

27. AP did not have permission from Plaintiff to authorize its subscribers to maintain archive or "file" copies of the Photograph, or to republish the Photograph years after its initial distribution. Nor did the Publisher Defendants have a license to do so.

28. Plaintiff presently lacks information necessary to determine the full and complete scope of the infringing uses of his Photograph by Defendants. Upon information and belief, a reasonable opportunity for discovery will yield evidence that the infringing uses identified in Exhibit 1 are not the complete scope of the Defendants' uses of the Photograph.

COUNT I
COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT
AGAINST ALL DEFENDANTS

29. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges each allegation set forth in all paragraphs above as if set forth fully herein.

30. Plaintiff created and is the owner of all copyrights in and to the Photograph.

31. Plaintiff registered his copyrights in the Photograph with the U.S. Copyright Office.

32. AP and the Publisher Defendants used, published, distributed, and/or otherwise used and exploited Plaintiff's Photograph as alleged herein without authorization or license.

33. By making unauthorized uses of the Photograph, AP and the Publisher Defendants misappropriated Plaintiff's intellectual property for their own profit, causing Plaintiff significant injuries, damages, and losses in amounts to be determined at trial.

34. AP and the Publisher Defendants' unauthorized use of Plaintiff's copyrighted Photograph was willful.

35. Plaintiff seeks all damages recoverable under the Copyright Act, including statutory or actual damages, including AP and the Publisher Defendants' profits attributable to the infringing use of Plaintiff's creative work, and the damages suffered as a result of the lack of compensation, credit, and attribution. Plaintiff also seeks all attorneys' fees and any other costs incurred in pursuing and litigating this matter.

COUNT II
CONTRIBUTORY and/or VICARIOUS COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT
AGAINST AP

36. Plaintiff repeats and re-alleges the allegations above as if set forth fully herein.

37. AP distributed copies of Plaintiff's copyrighted Photograph to its customers without valid permission from Plaintiff, who is the only party authorized to allow such editorial uses of the Photograph.

38. Through its actions, AP materially contributed to, facilitated, induced, or otherwise is responsible for the directly infringing acts carried out by the Publisher Defendants and yet-to-be-ascertained John Doe defendants.

39. AP had the right and ability to prevent the Publisher Defendants, including the John Doe subscribers, from copying and publishing Plaintiff's Photograph.

40. AP obtained direct financial benefits from the infringements of the Publisher Defendants.

41. By copying, distributing, displaying, publishing, and otherwise exploiting Plaintiff's copyrighted Photograph, each of the Publisher Defendants infringed Plaintiff's copyrights and caused Plaintiff significant injuries, damages, and losses in amounts to be determined at trial.

42. Plaintiff seeks all damages recoverable under the Copyright Act, including statutory or actual damages, including Defendants' profits attributable to the infringements, and damages suffered as a result of the lack of compensation, credit, and attribution and from any diminution in the value of Plaintiff's copyrighted work. Plaintiffs also seek all attorneys' fees and any other costs incurred in pursuing and litigating this matter.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully prays for judgment on his behalf and for the following relief:

1. A preliminary and permanent injunction against Defendants precluding Defendants from displaying, advertising, promoting, and/or selling the infringing publications identified herein, and requiring Defendants to deliver to the Court for destruction or other appropriate disposition all relevant materials, including digital files of Plaintiff's photograph and all copies of the infringing materials described in this complaint, that are in the control or possession or custody of Defendants;

2. All allowable damages under the Copyright Act, including but not limited to, statutory or actual damages, including damages incurred as a result of Plaintiff's loss of licensing revenue, Defendants' lack of attribution, and Defendants' profits attributable to infringement;

3. Plaintiff's full costs, including litigation expenses, interest, and any other amounts authorized under law, and attorneys' fees incurred in pursuing and litigating this matter;

4. Any other relief authorized by law, including punitive and/or exemplary damages;
and

5. For such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

Nå er hovedrolle-innehaver David Duchovny optimist:

Tror på nye episoder av «X-Files»

DEN GANG DA: Gillian Anderson David Duchovny slik vi husker dem da «X-files» hadde premiere på TV 2 i 1994.

(VG) 02.03.2015 10:02 - oppdatert 02.03.2015 10:51

Mange tror det ikke før de ser det, men etter en pause på ti år, vurderer nå Fox Television seriøst å vekke «X-Files» til live igjen.

I et intervju på amerikansk TV, bekrefter David Duchovny, som spilte en av hovedrollene i serien, at utsiktene er lyse.

– Mye lysere enn de var for to uker siden, sier Duchovny ifølge den engelske avisen The Mirror.

Dermed bærer han ytterligere mer ved til bålet som ble tent av styreformannen i Fox, Gary Newman, da han for en tid tilbake gikk ut og bekrefter at duoen Mulder og Scully sannsynligvis var på vei tilbake til skjermen.

– Jeg kan bekrefte at vi har hatt samtaler om å lage nye episoder av «X-Files» og at vi håper at det kan bli noe av, sa Newman i midten av januar.

Etter det har spekulasjonene gått høyt om hvorvidt det er Gillian Anderson og David Duchovny som nok en gang skal spille hovedrollene i serien.

– Som sagt, det ser lyst ut, er alt Duchovny vil si på det nåværende tidspunkt, samtidig som han bekrefter at han er i forhandlinger med Fox.

Det er i så fall ikke første gang han mer eller mindre gjør helomvending når det gjelder sitt forhold til agent Mulder. Rundt år 2000 var han var møkklei «X-Files» og var sjeleglad for at kontrakten var utgått – men etter at produsentene kom med et attraktivt økonomisk tilbud, ombestemte han seg og takket ja til nye episoder.

– Folk falt for «X-Files» nettopp fordi vi fortalte én spennende og gåtefull historie per episode, har David Duchovny tidligere gitt som en av forklaringene på at X-Files slo så godt an som det gjorde.

Her i Norge er serien blitt løftet frem som en av bærebjelkene til TV 2 i kanalens barndom.

- «X-files er en godt produsert og spenningsfylt serie som drar deg til seg og holder deg fast», skrev VG-anmelderen i 1994 da serien ble vist for første gang.

Men det betyr ingen måte at alt «X-Files»-gjengen har tatt i er blitt til gull. VGs anmelder var bare sånn passe fornøyd da den første «X-Files»-filmen kom i 1998.

– I noen år har vi levd med dette fenomen i TV-serien. Vår første begeistring har lagt seg. Og den revitaliseres ikke akkurat med denne filmen, skrev vår anmelder den gang.

Scully and Mulder to return to TV?

January 19 2015 at 12:38pm

Comment on this story

London - A reboot of 'The X Files' is being planned by Fox TV.

The cult sci-fi series originally ran from 1993 to 2002 but the broadcaster is now considering bringing back the show with the iconic FBI duo, Special Agent Dana Scully (Gillian Anderson) and Special Agent Fox Mulder (David Duchovny), who were simply known as Mulder and Scully, in a bid to boost the network's viewing figures.

Gary Newman, chairman of the Fox TV Group, said: "It's true that we've had some conversations on 'X-Files'.

"We're hopeful of being able to bring that back at some point."

Following initial discussions, showmakers are believed to currently be searching for a time at which "key players" Gillian and David are able to reprise their roles in the supernatural drama.

A source said: "Mulder and Scully were one of the greatest TV double acts - and now Fox want them back.

"The network feels that they can draw huge numbers and a PR drive to bring back a show which offers both drama and a built in cult following."

However, the fate of the project now lies with scriptwriters who are being trusted to meet the standard of storylines from the original episodes to ensure longevity for the programme once more.

Speaking to the Daily Mirror newspaper, the insider added: "The money deal is in place and now it is time to produce good story lines and a plot which can make this show a long runner again." - BANG Showbiz

I am a bit disturbed at the creative bankruptcy we seem to be in, with re-hashes of past trends and genres. The 'X files' series was great in its time, but I think the world needs something fresh now. Are we running out of ideas?

It's hard to believe it's been 20 years since "The X-Files" left television screens.

But after such a long wait, loyal fans of the show will get the rare opportunity to see Mulder and Scully reunite at Comic-Con.

A celebratory panel on July 18 has been announced for the 20th anniversary of the legendary show, which aired from September 10, 1993, to May 19, 2002. Scheduled to appear are series creator Chris Carter, as well as writer/producers David Amann, Vince Gilligan, Howard Gordon, Darin Morgan, Glen Morgan, John Shiban, Jim Wong and other guests who are yet to be announced.

It has been reported that one of the show's stars, Gillian Anderson, will make an appearance. However, it has not been confirmed whether Special Agent Mulder actor David Duchovny will be there.
